The Battle

We walked through the night for about two (A)____, until we came to a hillside on which many small (B)____ were burning. Infadoos told us that the chiefs had gathered the warriors under their command here, and that as soon (C)____ the sun rose we should all address them. When the (D)____ had risen the warriors gathered on the slope of the hill, and Infadoos took the chiefs and stood before the army.

When they had heard the prince's story and seen the markings on his back, the (E)____ all stamped their feet, and the whole hillside seemed to shake. We now had the backing of the army. We decided to wait for the enemy where we were, and the following morning they came. As the armies met, a great cry went up from our warriors, "The prince! The prince!" and we heard men screaming when the spears found them. In the end we managed to push their army back down the hill.
